Rojales is a lovely typical Spanish town located very close to Ciudad Quesada and all of it's international amenities including golf course and water park. The coast can be reached in about 10 minutes by car from the development, here you will find the beautiful blue flag Guardamar beach with it's golden sand. In Rojas itself you have all of the necessary amenities either for a nice holiday or permanent accommodation. The Mercadona supermarket is around the corner and the local school also.

These beautiful detached villas come complete with 3 double bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, you have the choice of having a private pool at an extra cost, which is perfect for the summer months also. Each client also has an option to have a private solarium at an extra cost also. All of the villas come complete with an under-build which can be used for a multiple of purposes, some clients turn them into a man cave, others have a home gym and certain clients use the under build as a laundry room and storage.

The development is located within walking distance to all of the local amenities and has a good motorway link to the Alicante airport which can be reached in about 35 minutes.
