This charming one of a kind new build villa is located in a great spot in Benimar within walking distance to all of your international amenities and local supermarkets. A brand new road is now open next to the property so accessing Ciudad Quesada and Benijofar town has never been easier. This beautiful detached villa is almost finished as you can see from the photos. The only thing missing are your personal details such as light fittings and furniture. The property comprises of two floors, on the ground level you will find the first bedroom plus an open plan kitchen and living area complete with utility room. On the first floor you have the master bedroom plus bathroom including a large terrace where you can enjoy the year round Spanish sun. Externally the property comes complete with a good sized private pool plus enough room for sunbathing and alfresco dining. There is also enough room to park 2 cars on the plot.
